Short Story 7: Final Project (Frankenstein)

Final Project Checklist (30 Marks)

❑ Frankenstein Plot Diagram (5 Marks)

❑ Frankenstein Protagonist vs Antagonist Venn Diagram (5 Marks)

❑ Alternate Ending to Frankenstein - Minimum 1 Page Single Space, 14 font (10 Marks)

❑ Visual Presentation for Alternate Ending (10 Marks)

Plot Diagram (5 Marks)
- Label the Plot Diagram sheet provided and identify the biggest parts of the Frankenstein Short Story

Venn Diagram (5 Marks)
- Complete the Venn Diagram provided and compare the different characteristics of the protagonist and antagonist. Avoid including physical features.
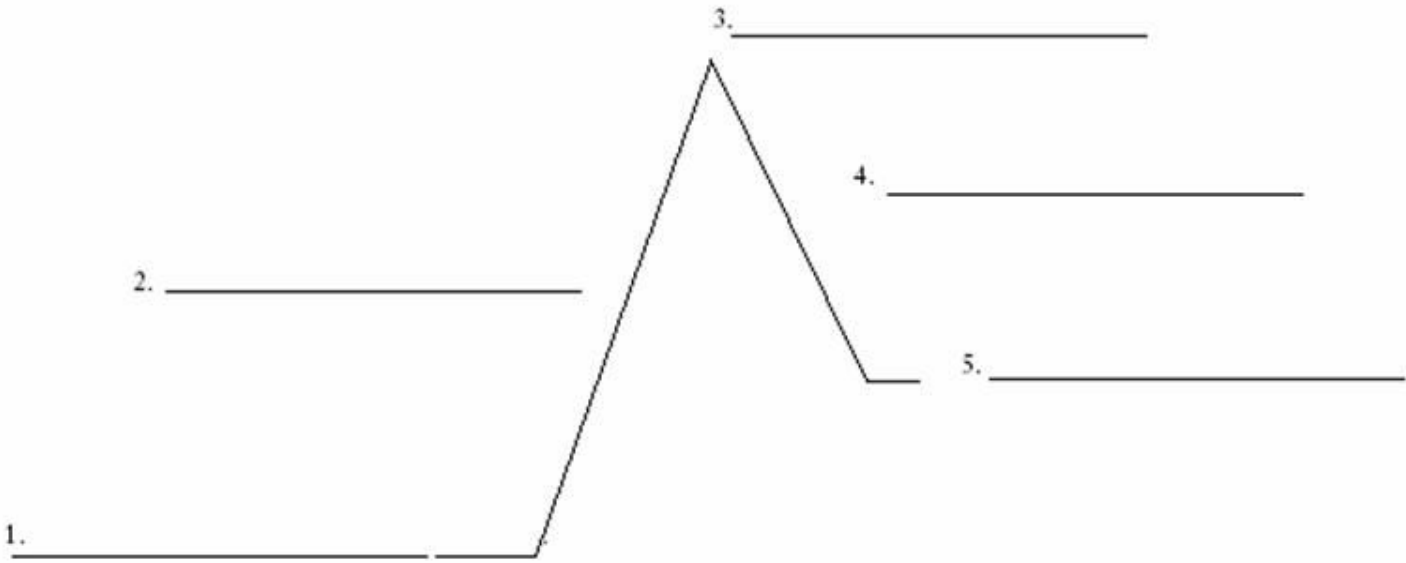

Alternate Ending (10 Marks)
- Choose any moment in the Frankenstein Short Story and put your own spin on the ending. Please don't introduce any new characters and keep the existing characters relatively similar to have they have been throughout the story. (For example, Doctor Frankenstein cannot be bitten by a spider and spontaneously generate super powers.)

Visual for Alternate Ending (10 Marks)
- After you have completed the alternate ending, create a visual presentation that will compliment the alternate ending you have created. You are only required to include the events that occurred in your alternate ending, but you are welcome to include some details from the original story. Check out the PBL Menu for ideas!

Plot Diagram: Frankenstein

3. _____

4. _____

2. _____

5. _____

1. _____

In the space provided below, complete the table with the biggest moments from the Frankenstein story. Each column represents one of the 5 parts of a story.

1	2	3	4	5

Venn Diagram: Protagonist vs Antagonist

In the space provided below, identify some of the key characteristics of the Protagonist and Antagonist. Please avoid using physical features of each of the characters.

Protagonists Name:

Antagonists Name:

Protagonist Characteristics
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-

Shared Characteristics
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-

Antagonist Characteristics
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-

Short Story 7: Frankenstein Alternate Ending